ust Company not long after the Attorney-General were practical

Story of Dig Bonus.

erday is the swinging of the investible tion in the transion of ascertaining if banks and trust companies for hig city deposits beyond the legal interest. Ever ince the failure of the Carnegie Trust sons who procured city deposits for cermin banks were paid a commission.

John Alvin Young, former President of the Windsor Trust Company, and Bank, has been subposured to appear knows along this line, if he knows any. Pirth hing. It is believed that a prominent Baldwin to Be Called.

Le Roy Baldwin, President of the Emwith city deposits and made loans to the Cummins group, will be subpoensed if the investigation continues to move yer identified with a combination of hig inspire the marchers to quick acter of the testimony Mr. Baldwin will

It has been learned that among the is a detective who worked in Pittsburg with those who brought about the big city money there. The exposure showed ship, that banks paid large sums of money He to various city officials in return for Carnegle Interested.

Arew Carnegle has been taking some interest in the progress of the investigation into the bankrupt institution that bears his name. Mr. Carnegie has through a side street. inquirers that his knowledge of the affairs of the Carnegie Trust Com-

"KISSING WALKS" IN HARDEN'S HOME

(Continued from First Page.)

her to the Belmont Hotel, where she Marshal Daly estimated that there His Grace the Mos Ref. Physics of the Occasion of Mrs. Harden's sixth Of the many thousands of parades The Poursaire of the where he went with the woman he would meet that night." The occasion was New Year's eve, 1907. Harden, according to Hoops, had engaged a table at Rector's and was to entertain a party of women, one of whom Hoops thought tharden would accompany from the respanded in bigger and better than every table to the control of th meet that night." The occasion was New Year's eve, 1957. Harden, according to Hoops, had engaged a table at Rector's and was to entertain a party of swemen, one of whom Hoops thought Harden would accompany from the restaurant.

It is customary to say on each recurring St. Patrick's Day that the party of swemen, one of whom Hoops thought Harden would accompany from the restaurant.

The festimony was introduced in support of Harden's contention that Hoops the straighted money to provide her to be eat of basis of fact. Never before have fore have the lirishmen of New York before have the straight and of first trace. Harden would not trace Harden would not receive the says more.

ACKSONVILLE ENTRIES.

ACKSON case filing in color from Weak New Work.

Outcome and F McKinele

Till RACE—The Florids Speed Health and County Organizations.

Filing and the Brewn of the Brewn

TAMPA ENTRIES.

FIRST RATE deliber three-rescale and three-rescale

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADERS MARCH UNDER SUNNY SKIES

Reviewed by Mayor Gaynor and Archbishop Farley in Front of Cathedral.

any consideration was given by certain 25,000 MEN IN LINE

Company it has been rumored that per- Horse Runs Away With Marshal's Aide and Gives the Crowd a Thrill.

pacity for a big party organization, will find out why St. Patrick's Day parades.

conditions been so favorable. The air pire Trust Company, which was favored was not too cold for the countless thou-give should be be called upon to appear grand marshal's side, mounted on a failure of the Carnegie Trust Company and the Cathedral a lifelike imitation of the ride of Paul Revere-all but the midnight part. This particular aide will candal connected with the banking of never wear any medan for horsemanhis stirrups were hung too short for his tinuous tabbing of the spurs, broke Since his return from the South An- away and ran up the avenue. A policeman made a thrilling stop in front of the reviewing stand, after which the long aide d'emounted and led his horse

Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

Mayor Cheered Crowd.

Mayor Gaynor rode up from the City Hall to the Grand Central station in the ersuaded to land the concern $2,000,000, subway accompanied by Lieut Kennell, which he has slight hope of getting walked across to Fifth avenue and up back. However, it is stated, Mr. Carnegie will willingly appear before the Grand Jury should his presence be deemed of value by the District-Attor-cheered the Mayor as he stepped briskly along the pavement. At Fiftieth street the jam was so thick that a police tackle formation was necessary to get His Hon-

The Mayor and John D. Crimmins were the only laymen on the reviewing stand. The rest were all clergymen. Mayor Gaynor sat at the right of Archbishop Farley and Mr. Crimmine at the

The Sixty-ninth Regiment, 1,200 strong, led the parade. Then came the Irish Volunteers, 2,500 of them, and every man a trim figure of a soldier, under the command of Col. Charles Crowley. At frequent intervals there were bands of fife and drum corps and the sound of music and the shrill of fifes and the boom of drums was continuous as the parade passed. Grand and celebrations that of this city was Joseph P. Layton, manager of a pri-the most imposing. No other city in vate detective agency, created a mild the world has such a large and loyal sensation when he swore that Hoops are him 625 to trail Harden and "see other city turns out such enormous where he went with the woman he would parades or puts forth as many func-mile and a discording to the second of the second in the actions the second in the second in the actions the second in the

Sixty-Ninth Regiment Coming Down Fifth Ave. at Head of St. Patrick's Day Parade

tral Palace and the dinner of the EXPRESS STRIKE The military feature of the parade was particularly strong this year. Besides the three regiments and one brigade of the Irish Volunteers and the Sixty-CRIMINAL, SAYS ninth Regiment, National Guard, numerous companies of uniformed cadets and been assigned places in the line. The parade was arranged in bat MAYOR GAYNOR talions, which arrangement made for compactness and allowed of more the state of march extended straight out Fifth avenue from Forty-second street to One Hundred and Twentieth street, where it shifted over to Second avenue and from there up to the Har-lem River Casino. The spacious Casino has been decorated with myriads of stand up for your rights and you ought hours and for all that enters into the Following was the formation of the

(Continued From First Page.)

But to get together a few frivilone things and strike without any reason or any warning, and tie up the merchandise of the city and the trunks of travellers who have to go without their clothes even, is criminal and a brutal thing, and intend to use the whole power of this city to defeat that thing.

Men Absolutely Wrong. "I say emphatically that in this in stance the men are absolutely wrong workingmen or have anything

"I am torry for the men over on this side of the river, because they wanted to act reasonably last night, but they should not allow this crowd over in Jersey City to rule them. I had the same trouble with that crowd last year, and I am sor-

this is what Biggs said in making plain he attitude of his men:

"Unless the Adams Express Company makes a move to meet us half way within the next twenty-four hours every wheel in New York will be stopped.

"The Mayor is out of it. The Mayor cannot arbitrate this thing. and the next move must come from the express companies. "I have heard that there has been some trouble with the strikebreaker o-day, but I have told my men to us no violence. The union does not cou enance it, and we will not stand by the en who are disorderly and rictous. "After leaving the Mayor yesterday afternoon we had decided to let him act as arbiter.

Jersey Men Did It.

"The men over in Jersey City came and dragged my men out, and we are now determined to fight to a finish." The early air of confidence shown by officials of the companies that they late in the day.

The United States Express Company officials said they did not intend hiring any strike-breakers, although stable bosses made such employments at the studies, presumably without the knowledge of the officials. But a small part of the business of the Adams Company was done during the day. The company gave out the information that the action of their employees in going on the general strike onded the neuotiations that had been in progress, and in which the Mayor had taken a prominent part.

4,200 Men Out.

There were about 4,200 men out by o'clock this afternoon.

There was a spectacular and exciting The companies were eming strike breakers, but when the to describe it on the witness stand."

ries to frightening the attacking force. The aim of the excited guard was so poor that he shot one of the horses attached to the wagon and the team immediately ran away. The runaway, the shot and the crowd of angry strikers combined to make a lively street aceas. None of the men in the wagon were hurt. The team ran straight back to its stable, and the policemen arrived too late to arrest any of the strikers.

ordered the captains of the five boroughs to keep all of their reserves on duty until the contrary was ordered.

TAMPA RESULTS.

FIRST BACE-$100; three-year-olds and up; five furlongs; selling.-Heart of Hyacinth, 113 (Griffen), 4 to 1, 8 to 5 and to 5, first; Lady Hapshurg, 165 Dreyer, 3 to 1, even and 1 to 2, second; Flow Wattle, 85 (Wrignen), 3 to 1, even and 1 to 2, third, Time, 1664-5, Johnnie Blake, Broken Ties, Bronnw. and Miss Cardigan also ran. unawall, Caltha tellveries changed as the day were on, forward into a crystal grotto, the Lusi and aside from the money wagons of lania came in to-day, Until Wednesday the United States Express Company no she had ideal sailing weather, but that tania came in to-day, Until Wednesday ansportation was attempted. The offi-also made preparations for a new try and in a few hours the thermometer dropped from 61 to 24.

Lusitania Comes in Coated With Four-Inch Ice From Sudden Cold Gale.

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and their Ruby Knight, 103 (Huffnagle), 15 to 1, three children, Master C. Whitney, Miss 6 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1.01 3-5. Flora Whitney and little Barbara Whitney, and Mr and Mrs. J. A. Burden The Whitney party included one tutor. one governess, one nurse, one valet, one lady's maid and one chauffeur. Burdens on the other hand were flying comparatively fight. All they had was one governess and one nurse.

ler to meet the Whitney party. Mr. Whitney, who went abroad about before the Merritt Legislative Committee in connection with the anti-race track fight, denied emphatically that he took to the part in the alleged dinner at Celmonico's Poslam, the remarkable

The companies were bringing and Agnew bills.

There may have been such a dinner billadelphia and other points. The for all I know," said he to an Evening had been expected that the English polo fifth street, New York City.

Special for Saturday MISSES' AND FANCY

san Blas Cocoant Risses. Ever cat the genuine rich, rice san Blas coronnut? If not, try it shredued, roasted and in commantion with chorestate and was the coron of the coronation with chorestate and was the coronaction of the coronaction with chorestate and was the coronaction of the coronaction and flavored creams, made up in 10c cleaned if perfection and flavored creams made up in 10c much with their now sweet less forms. POLND BOX 10c

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CHECGLATE COVERED PLANTS.
TIONS. Old style, open bettle belied New Orleans molasses heated until it becomes perfect taffy, and putted until crisp and chewy and dioped in deticious chocal and continents of bombons and chocal and sortiments of bombons and chocal and fried listed with the richest milk lades in the high strade means, choice ingredients, purity and finished workship. POUND BON 25c

Park How and Cortlandt Street Stores open every evening until 11 o'clock,
All our stores open saturday Evening until 11 o'clock,
MILK CHOCOLATE COVERED MALAGA GRAPES LAST CALL. This speset fine the matured to select the select th the zenith of its exceed over by dispute ported grapes are dissed over by dispute in sugar steam, and then encrusted with a stant evering of the most expensive at the covering of the most expensive formula theoretic on the American market.

This is your last chance at the container of the opportunity pound box 39C. The specified weight in each instance includes the container.

MORE U.S. TROOPS TO JOIN BIG ARMY ALREADY IN TEXAS

Report that the Sixth Artillery Is to Go Is Officially Confirmed.

ENGINEERS MAKE MAPS

More than 3,000 Officers of National Guard Will Encamp Next Week.

Special to The Evening World).
FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas, March 17 .- Preparations are being made for the accommodation of several thousand more troops than were embraced in the original order for the mobilization of twenty thousand men. The report that the Sixth Artillery, now stationed at Fort Riley, is to be ordered here within the next few days was officially confirmed to-day. Events are shaping themselves for rapid and sweeping changes in the constitutional government of Mexico and the putting into effect of the proposed reforms may cause disorders equal in seriousness to the revolution that is now in progress in that country. The United States troops will be close at hand geady to protect American interests sliould they be menaced during the choatic

Department have recently mapped the maker, strikingly beautiful and be-Mexican frontier, from the mouth of coming to the wearer. the Rio Grande to California. Man-Dainty Persian Lawn, high or low eouvres on a big scale will take place neck and the favorite kimono sleeves next week. More than three thousand tastefully trimmed with Cluny lace. next week. More than three thousand officers of the National Guard of dif-

JACKSONVILLE RESULTS.

FIRST RACE-Breeder's purse; three-152 (Schweitzer), 4 to 1, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5, first; Elmetta Hamilton, 100 (McTaggart), 4 to 5, 1 to 2 and out, second; Ruby Knight, 103 (Huffnagle), 15 to 1, Grand Peggy, Infatuation, Woolspun, Frank McKennie, Sam Matthews, Allan

KEEP POSLAM

complete without a box or a jar of when half a million dollars is said to which accomplishes such rapid cure have been raised to bear the Hart- of eczema and serious skin diseases, pimples, blemishes, fever World reporter, "but I never heard of the first thought of thousands "when-Mr. Whitney and Mr. Burden said lam in two sizes at 50 cents and $2. che and stones at the driver they spent much of their time hunting Write for free sample to the Emer-

Save Your Stockings

Economy Salas Co., 118 E. 28 1 St., N. Y.

MARTHA WASHINGTON CANDIES

Full Fresh Line of These Celebrated Goods en Sale, Arrade Floor, C. S. Express Building, 2 Rector St. Orders for 2 Pounds Upward Delivered Ures Any Part Greater New York, Tele-utions 3000 Rector, All Marina Washington Cauties, 50 Cents Found.

"HAVE A GRAPE!" Control of the State of the Sta

DIED.

O'CONNOR.—Thursday, March 16, at his residence, 455 West 45d at. JEREMIAH O'CONNOR, son of the late Jeremiah O'Connor and Margaret Long.
Funeral from and solemn high requiam mass at Holy Cross Church, West 42d at., Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. WORK. On March 16, 1911, at his residence, 13 E, 26th st., FRANK WORK, in the 98d year of his age. Foneral services will be held at h late residence Saturday, March 18, a 10 o'clock.

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. LOST -$25 reward and no questions asked retu-of good watch but Lakehors' train, Jersey Ce (rs) Stonday afternoon, Moffat, 431 Riverd Errice.
LUST Frilay A. M. on 8.15 hos. from 81
George, S. 1. can leather grap; initials and on end. Suitable reward for return to Walter Wattoback. 200 5th ar.; phone 4831 Madison.

LONDON PLUMES

which you can copy for very little money.

TWO remarkable Price-Offerings that will be found unsurpassed for Style and Value.

They emphasize in their own way the POST leadership and the POST idea of giving the MOST for the LEAST MCNEY.

Regular Price, $2.00

The Season's Choicest Waist, fresh Engineers of the United States War master achievement of designer and with colored Hungarian embroidery the recent innovation that delights the woman seeking novelty

A Real >5.00 Value

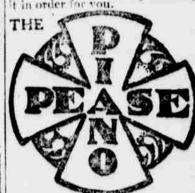

An unusually attractive Coat that con tributes to the stylishness of the child that wears it. Graceful, pert and youthful-splen didly made and finished. All wool Paca material, in the correct fashionable Spring shades - appropri-ate for all-season wear-dressy enough for any occasion. Cuffs and pockets trimmed with pretty plaid silk that imparts an air of distinc

Bast J.L.POST 20 East 14th Street 8. W. Cor. 14th Street and Union Square

The First Cost Your Last

a you buy a Pease Player-Piano. as we give you free of charge the unlimited use of our music roll hbrary, the third largest in New York; then we warrant both piano and player equally and keep t in order for you.

has proven sammactory to over 82,000 purchasers and it's sure to please you also; and when you buy a Player-Piano, you must have a good piano because of the extra use you will give it. Prices from $550 up; used players $400 up; easy payments; old instruments exchanged. Write for player booklet and PEASE PIANO CO., 23 W. 42d St., nr. Broadway, N. Y. Brooklyn Brane Newark Branchs 34 F atbush Ave.

Sunday World Wants Work Monday Morning Wonders.